Christiana Care Health System used Google Glass to capture the patient experience in simulated iRound encounters.

By demonstrating poor, mediocre and excellent communication between staff and patients, these videos taught standardized patients how to coach staff in live simulations.

The videos also taught staff and leaders how to effectively partner with patients during rounds.

The following video is one of three scenarios. How would you rate this patient experience?

Standardized patients rated the nurse in this video 10 on a scale of 1-10.
